Dear Major:

I would like to get a $3 gold blank, or, if not, a $2.50 piece, before the impression is struck on it, and, if possible, with a raised rim. I wish it for a bangle for a bracelet. I dont suppose there is any objection to selling a blank coin — if there is, of course I don't want it, but if not, I would be very much obliged if you would send me one with polished sides, and I will send you the money for the same.

Cant you send me a couple of those "Blaine" medals? I have had several requests from persons who have seen mine, and I would be very much obliged.

Very truly,
Your friend,
E. O. Leech
